

GOLF TOURNAMENTS FROM START TO FINISH...

Planning a golf tournament can be an overwhelming process if you do not have experience on your side. Kennedy Golf, owned and operated by PGA Professionals, John and Holly Kennedy, was founded with the purpose of helping non-profits, charities, corporate, and social groups plan and execute unforgettable and successful golf tournaments at both public and private golf courses. Kennedy Golf makes your tournament planning experience easy, seamless and stress-free.

HOW CAN KENNEDY GOLF HELP ME?

For some the goal may be simple: book a casual golf outing for a group of friends. For others, the mission may be to develop an annual charity event with a focus on fundraising. We partner with golf courses to bring you the best service and value available, saving you both money and time. From developing your tournament committee and creating a budget, to designing an invitation and handling player registration, to providing on-site coordination on the day of your event, our team of experts handles every detail; from Start to Finish.
